GIRL SHRINKS FROM MILLIN

Asks That Daughter of Dead Man be Sent to Back of Room.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, November 17.-With four of the twelve men who are to decide her fate already selected, the trial of Nan Patterson, the former show girl, charged with the murder of Caesar Young, the wealthy horseman, was continued in the criminal branch of the Supreme Court to-day. The greatest care has been used examination of talesmen and the exhaustive questioning and almost indiscriminate challenging for even the slightest cause, indicated that the panel of 100 talesmen might be exhausted before the

Afraid of Millin.

Miss Patterson seemed in very good spirits when she entered the couri-room and a brief chat with her counsel before the trial was resumed added to her apparent cheerfulness. Mr. Levy informed the defendant that the morning mail had brought him a letter which might have an important bearing on the case. What the letter contained was not divulged.

John Millin, who was Caesar Young's racing partner, and who, it is understood will be one of the principal witnesses for the prosecution, was made to sit in the rear of the court-room upon request of the prisoner. Millin had a seat near the bar enclosure, and had been watching Miss Patterson closely for some time when she asked that he be ordered away from the rall. As Miller passed the december in going to the rear of the courtendant in going to the rear of the cour she shrank back upon her father's #### Eve-Witness Discovered.

An eye witness to the shooting of Young was discovered in a most unusual way to-day while the trial was in progress. Archibald J. C. Anderson, one of the men summoned for examination as to his qualifications to serve on the jury, was being questioned by Assistant District Attorney, when he asked permission to speak with Judge Davis, who is presiding at the trial. After a whispered conversation, counsel for the prosecution and defense were called to the bench and a moment later Anderson was excused
